onto the stage to accept our award, I smiled while taking their photograph. All of the staff members of “The Tattler” had worked so hard, invested countless hours both writing and editing articles, and the hard work and dedication paid off! We beamed with pride as we posted the exciting news on Facebook (Like us - The HAFTR Tattler), twitter (Follow us - @HAFTRTattler) and Instagram (Follow us - @haftattler).

Of course, we could not have done this without the support and guidance from our faculty advisor, Karen Wolf, and our supportive principals, Naomi Lippman and Rabbi Gedaliah Oppen. Special thanks to Matthew Maron, former editor-in-chief, who brought “The Tattler” back from a long hiatus. The entire staff hopes for further advancement and continued success at other journalism events in the future.
