

Photo courtesy of HAFTR

HAFTR Kindergarten and High School students joined together for a special siyum. Students in both divisions had been learning Pirqei Avot in the weeks leading up to Shavuot. Kindergarteners sang songs demonstrating their learning and then high school students invited them to join in a special breakfast. Kindergarten students had an opportunity to learn b'chavruta with their high school friends. Thank you to all the Rabbeim and morot for facilitating this wonderful program.